Study Notes

- Reflect on Genesis 9:1-5:
 - Why did God bless Noah and his family?
 - How does this passage compare to Deuteronomy 28:12?
 - How does it reflect God's provision, grace, and love?
- Who did God establish his new covenant with in this chapter?
 - What was included in this covenant?
 - What did God promise that he will never do again?
- What was the sign of the covenant?
 - How are we to remember this covenant?
 - How does God remember the covenant he made to Noah?
- What did God command the waters never to do again?
 - How does this display God's mercy towards humanity?
- What were the changes in Noah and his family's diet that God asked them to obey?
 - Read Leviticus 17: 10-14, why did God forbid them to eat meat with blood still in it?
- Who is included in the covenant made between God and Noah?
- Read Genesis 9:18-29:
 - Why was it important for Noah's descendants to be recorded in the text?
 - How was Noah tempted by sin?
 - Why did Noah curse his youngest son?
 - How did Noah curse his youngest son?
- Who is solely responsible for keeping the covenant between God and Noah?
 - What does that tell you about God's character?
 - How does this honor God's word in Numbers 23:19?
 - How does this honor God's word in 2 Timothy 2:13?
